“ My Dad, a man of true integrity, a perfectionist in every sense of the word, a heart of great kindness and I am humbled in what he was able to accomplish in his earthly years, given his simple beginnings. He was greatly respected in his profession, a legend in his own time. A real maverick of a man, straight shooter and no pretenses, just simple and trusting. Dad is where he wanted to be, in the next chapter, with the Lord, as the best is yet to come for all children of God. Dad your spirit will live on in many that have learned from you, and I am missing you. Fred and I love you Dad, and your sweet Madeleine will forever carry her Papa in her heart and mind. Thanks for the memories and the life you gave me Dad. I will always make you proud! xo

“ Cindy's family when we visited from Texas in October 2019. My dad sure loved his great granddaughter. Happy Father's Day in heaven Dad. I know you are at peace and I know you are proud of how I'm handling things in your honor and memory. I just weeded the beds and trimmed the hedges. The tomato plants miss you.

“ I am deeply sorry to hear this. I met Howard about 10 years ago and I got to see him almost every Saturday for quite sometime. He quickly became one of my favorite people in the world. His jokes, his stories and most of all his kindness. I was hoping this would never happen. I'm so sorry for all of his family. I know you will miss him so much. I know I will. Katie

“ Dear Cleo and Loving Family of Howard, and also his many, many friends, I was so, so sorry to hear that Howard had passed. He has been a dear family friend for as long as I have been alive. He and my Dad, Arnie, were the best of friends and also were neighbors for many, many years until Howard moved to Griffith back in the day. Howard came to all of our family events and holiday dinners. He was always a welcome guest, always a joke to tell or something funny to pick on one of us about. He'd stay for a few beers and would take a plate of food with him, and on to the next place he would go! Never stayed in one place too long!

After my parents passed, Howard and I stayed in touch over the years by phone or by the funny cards I would send him which he would always call me right away and then we'd end up solving the worlds problems together. I will truly, truly miss him, he was one of a kind, one of the good guys. My parents absolutely loved him, as did I. In fact, I bet he and my dad are up there sharing some laughs over an ice cold Old Style right about now!

Cleo, I know how you will miss your brother. The last time he and I spoke, probably a couple months ago, he told me what a tremendous help that you have been to him. BLESS YOU my dear old friend, as you know, your brother was a very independent and oh so prideful man, and for him to admit that he needed help had to be a very humbling experience for him. My heart and thoughts are with you now and in the days ahead.

My Deepest Sympathies to all of Howards family and friends. He has spoken over the years about each and every one of you, how proud he was of you, how happy he was that he had just gotten a call or a visit. He knew he was valued, he knew he was loved. He always spoke his mind...that was our Howard! May God bless his dear soul and may he rest in Everlasting Peace. Amen.

My Dearest Howard,
Thank You for your friendship. Thank You for being so good to my parents, especially after Mom passed away, your calls and visits to Dad meant the world to him (and to me and Randy). Thank You for your sage advice over the years. Thank you for being there for me after Dad passed, I knew it broke your heart to lose him too. YOU made a difference in my life Howard. I love you 'Sweetie-Pie!' Happy Fathers Day! See you on the Other Side. XO
