“ Joan and family, I am truly sad to hear of Paul's passing, he was the sweetest, entertaining, & funny man. He will be missed. He once told me he was stalking me, I seen him at the post office and the grocery store in one day, We laughed, since that day years ago, when I seen him I would say there's my stalker again. 2 months ago we were making plans for Square dancing, when we meet again I am still taking you up on that invite. Joan my heart breaks for you and the kids and grandkids. I just cant imagine. I am right here for you always. Love you my friend. May he be at peace.

“ Sweet Uncle Paul, your smile and laugh will be missed.
Joan-Lots of hugs to you! I'm so sorry for your loss and I know that no words here will make it better, so I'll just share a funny little secret. Paul always called me Jenny. I'm sure he did it to be sweet and somewhere along the way someone probably told him that only Grandpa called me Jenny. I'm sure he was carrying "Jenny" on as a sweet, heartfelt gesture.
NO ONE calls me Jenny. My secret is that I thought I didn't want Paul to call me Jenny because that was grandpa's name for me. Out of respect, I never told Paul not to call me Jenny. I'm actually not fond of that shortened version of my name. I'm here to say that I will miss "Hey, Jenny!" from the man that was always smiling.
To all the kids-I'm sending you hugs. I understand what you're going through and I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Hugs to all of you!
Love,
Jennifer

“ I remember when Joan first introduced me to Paul. I thought Paul was a good match for the always happy and good natured Joan. Paul loved a good joke and we traded more than a few over the years.

Joan, I am sorry you had to let your Paul go. I'd say he's in a better place but I can't imagine a better place than by your side. Knowing you, I know Paul was well cared for, loved fully and lived a happy life with you and your family.

I hope you take comfort in knowing Paul was better for having met you and to have walked together with you for a while in this journey we call life.

My prayers go with you and your family at this sad time.
