“ Roy had a huge heart. He was devoted to those he loved. He was very protective of friends and family.

If anyone had a problem they would always pull him in to save the day, and he always did!

He and his wife Karen offered a homeless man a place in their home, that was more than ten years ago. The homeless man told me that Roy "saved his life" by taking him in. "He saved my life!" I have heard that said many times about my brother Roy. He could be the toughest man you ever met, but inside was a tender soul. He loved his children and wanted more for them than he had ever had.

He was a physically beautiful human being with a handsome smile, and pretty blue eyes.

He was intelligent and hard working. He stood up for what he believed in. He hoped for the world to be a better place for himself, and those he loved.

He will be loved and missed.

“ Karen, Our deepest condolences to you and your family. We've known Roy for over 35 years. He was always very kind to me and has known my kids since they were very young. When my son was young, he sucked his thumb a lot and Roy always told him, "if you don't stop sucking your thumb, I'm going to put pickle juice on it." I will never forget that and to this day my son remembers it. Roy, had a big heart and would do anything for his friends. He is now in heaven with his mom. RIP my friend. Love always, Lily and Geoffrey,

“ So sad I will never see that beautiful, infectious smile again! On several occasions Roy acted like a big brother and protected me! He definitely was the one you wanted protecting you back in the day! He truly was good to me!
