“ We had a lot of fun with Aaron when he first started coming into our counter. I saw the kind and funny young man that was a joy to be around. I know he had his struggles and god knows we had our talks on how to treat people. No matter his struggles the kind young man I first met would usually find his way back and we would always settle our differences. I was proud that he was making it on his own and enjoyed working with him on a project a few months back. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. May you rest in peace Aaron.
