“ I remember percussion practices. Long time ago but proof some memories remain strong. Funny and goofy. Brought a light with him. Missed and in our thoughts.

“ I had the good fortune to get to know Adam even though not for the best of reasons. We are both Stage IV RCC Warriors who fought our battles with passion, tenacity and strength. Adam was not only an amazing individual but a fellow Warrior that all of us warriors looked up to. He lived his life to the fullest even during the toughest moments. He absolutely adored his wife Kelly and his family. I only met Adam once in person but I will forever treasure our time together. May his legacy live on forever in the lives he touched. Joel Stern
