“ Dear Jane, family, and friends. We've lost a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and a life long dear friend. From our School years playing baseball, hunting, fishing, dating, and driving our "54 fords" together have blessed me with a wealth of wonderful memories. In our later years, Joyce and I enjoyed all our visits and auto trips along with our great seafood meals that the four of us shared together. He was also "MY HERO" along with my personal "GPS" system. We never seemed to be lost, be it in the woods or on the road as he had an uncanny sense of direction and as his family knows, a "short cut" to anywhere. I will cherish the memories, the lifelong friendship, and his great sense of humor. Unlike myself, he was a man of few words, however, every word was well worth listening to. To Pudge, Hughsa, and my dear friend-till we meet again, as a fellow Catcher used to say, Save me a seat in "THE FRONT ROW"##imported-begin##Michael J Cupka Jr##imported-end##

“ Dear Jane and family. We've lost a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, greatgrandfather, and a very dear lifelong friend. I will cherish the fond memories from our High School baseball, hunting, fishing, dating, and racing our "54 Fords" to South Douglas. He was my personal "GPS" system, as we were never lost in the woods or on the road as he had an uncanny sense of direction. As you all know, he always had a "SHORT CUT" to somewhere! He, unlike myself, was a man of a few words, however as the boys would agree, they were well worth listening to! In our later years, Joyce and I enjoyed our visits, our auto trips, and our seafood meals we had together. We will all miss his worldly advise, his wit and his wonderful sense of humor. To my best friend Pudge, Hughsa, or Papa, till we meet again-as an old fellow Catcher Bob Yuca used to say- Save me a seat in the "FRONT ROW"###imported-begin##Mike Cupka###imported-end##

“ You know that we share in your loss and our thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. Jackson's \"MY little sister Addison\" touched us deeply during our brief time with her that we are so thankful to have had. Now she is Jackson's little angel Addison to watch over him, so beautiful and forever in our hearts.
