

Agnes W. Betkowski (nee Croly)

February 1, 1946 - October 11, 2025

Agnes W Betkowski (nee Croly) 79 years of age, born of Glasgow, Scotland February 1st, 1946 had retired to Hobart, Indiana where she lived out her days and has peacefully passed away on October 11th, 2025 surrounded by friends. Agnes was best known for her life as the Vice President of PNC Bank by her friends and neighbors. During her retirement, Agnes took great pride in her garden at her home and her dogs, Astra and Jet. Agnes remained independent even after being diagnosed with medical issues as she was looked after by friends and family from Scotland.

Born of William and Elizabeth Croly, Agnes came to the United States in 1965 to make a life for herself. While she enjoyed gardening and her backyard paradise, she kept close to her roots and family in Scotland. Agnes was known to be a hard worker and expected the same of her employees as she managed banking institutions. Agnes was recognized by her employers with numerous awards she proudly displayed and even had been presented a new car for her efforts.

Agnes is the youngest of 9 children and is survived by one sister, Betty, and one child. Agnes had numerous nephews and nieces. Agnes was loved dearly by her late sister Bridget and her daughter, Alice, of Glasgow Scotland. Agnes had requested to not have a memorial service and to have her remains cremated. Agnes loved her dogs dearly and utilized Hobart Animal Clinic in Hobart, Indiana. In lieu of flowers, monetary donations can be made to the Hobart Animal Clinic in her name.

“ I was a co-worker with Agnes in the banking industry. She was a real go getter, a tough but fair boss. She never lost her accent. She would go out of her way for her customers. She was more insightful than I realize. A compliment from her was the real deal. Goodbye Agnes.
