“ Agnes was the best, I am sorry it took so long for me to post this, I didn't know until recently, I couldn't believe it. Agnes was a second mother to me,... especially when I needed to talk about something I couldn't talk to my mom about. I'd known her my whole life she was an Aunt, a friend, sister, mother and my "Doctor" this world is a darker place without her! I'll love and miss her forever

“ I'm sorry it took me a minute to write something . But here it is my mom was THE BEST I could never express how much I loved her...My Mom was always there talk about unconditional love ...My mom was always there just to talk .to listen. She was just there I will always remember one thing she said to me that meant everything....my mom told me that she actually liked me as as a person someone she liked being around...That has always stayed with me it meant so much to me....I love you Mom and will miss you sooo much..I hate life without hearing your voice..till I see you again give everyone in heaven a hug from me...I Love You

“ Fly high Agnes Crilley!!! You are truly a guardian Angel to your family, friends, and all who ever had the distinct honor of knowing you. Thank you again for creating and sharing your son (my wonderful husband Terry Crilley) with me. Your kindred spirit will forever remain in our hearts. Until we see you again "keep the candle burning." I feel so honored and blessed to be able to you my sweet and vibrant Mother In-law. When I think of you; it reminds me of the Bette Midler song lyrics which says: Did you ever know that you're our hero, and everything we would like to be? I can fly higher than an Eagle, for you are "the wind beneath my wings". The meaning behind this expresses the dynamic feelings one may experience while providing support for others. You will always be our support!!! For you are: The Wind Beneath our Wings!!! Fly High...

“ Terry, Joyce, Patrick and Cheryl. My heart hurts for the loss of your mother. I (PattiMcConnell) was incredibly blessed to have inherited such a wonderful aunt. We always had a blast together. I always told her that she was in her 90's going on 60. She was a bight life in my life. Special love to Jimmy and Ramon for keeping a watchful eye on her for decades.

“ Agnes was such a sweet lady and she was always kind to me. When I had my first son she bought the sweetest outfits and adorable caterpillar that had the alphabet on it. She had said that she has so much fun shopping for it. My boys all wore the outfits and enjoyed that caterpillar. There was so much love behind everything that she did.
