Alfred Burns, 11/21/1923 – 12/30/2011. He was born Nov. 21, 1923 and lived 88 yrs. He was the son of John & Catherine Burns and the last remaining of their children. He was a farmer by trade, but his whole life was devoted to serving the God he loved and his Son Jesus. He gave his life in consecration in the early years of his life and sought to work out that service through study and services to young and old. He was an elder of the Chicago Bible Students years ago and currently an elder of the Metropolitan Bible Students in Illinois.
