“ I just heard of Alice's passing this morning while searching for some Northwest Indiana history. My sincere sympathies to Al and her son's Jim & Robert and their families. I worked for Al & Alice at Publix Cleaners in Glen Park back in my high school days at Lew Wallace. Al & Alice were my neighbors and lived on the corner of 48th and Jefferson St. in Gary. I would watch her sons Jim & Robert and their dog Oliver when Al & Alice would go out and needed a sitter. I will always remember the great times we shared on the 4700 block of Jefferson St in our Junedale subdivision of Glen Park.

“ I met this wonderful women in 1980 after becoming best friends with Jim. She was such a joy to be around and treated everyone like she was your mother. She had such an interest and joy in everything and everyone around her. Her smile and happiness was truly contagious. Big hole in that family, Al, Terri and I love you and you are in our prayers.
