Thus, making her part of the Greatest Generation. After the war years, Patricia wed Emery and they started their family in Gary.

Her civic duty as a volunteer at Gary St. Mary Mercy Hospital allowed her to care for others. As well, Pat was very intuitive with babies and young children; she was a mother and teacher (aide) who understood the needs of others.

She was a member at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church, the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, and a long-standing fan of the Chicago White Sox and her loyal feline companion, Sox.
