

Alvin H. "Al" Fasel

August 31, 1922 - July 16, 2009

Alvin H. "Al" Fasel, age 86 and a lifetime resident of Hobart, passed away Thursday, July 16, 2009. Al was a US Army veteran of WWII and was awarded the Purple Heart. He was a retired truck driver for the City of Hobart, a member of Disabled Veterans, Hobart American Legion Post 54, and Trinity Lutheran Church. He was preceded in death by his parents Charles and Elsie Fasel, brother Carl Fasel and sister Beverly Larimore. Al is survived by his wife of 62 years Janet Sally Fasel; children Diana (Guy) Brechbill, Darrell (Mary) Fasel, Dean (Carol) Fasel, Darlene Fasel, Dale Fasel and Dudley (Lisa) Fasel; grandchildren Jayme (Paul) DeJulius, Mitchell (Melissa) Fasel, and Jonathan Fasel; great-grandchildren Cameron Fasel, Sage Snow, Syan DeJulius and Cadence Fasel; sisters Ruth (Elmer) Doege and Shirley Buchfuehrer. Funeral service will be Monday, July 20, 2009 at 11 a.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, 900 Luther Dr., Hobart, with visitation from 10 to 11 a.m.. Pastor Gary Nagy officiating. Burial at Chapel Lawn Memorial Gardens. Friends may visit with the family on Sunday from 2 to 8 p.m. at Burns Funeral Home, 701 E. 7th St., Hobart, IN. There will be an American Legion Post 54 service at 6 p.m. www.burnsfuneral.com