“ I have too many awesome memories of the love of my life so I'll just share the last... He was feeling so happy to be a step-son. He thanked me for marrying Adam. He loved his new job and spent his last night doing something he loved... watching the fights with grandpa until past midnight. During one break in the fight, he came over to me and gave me a giant bear hug, told me how happy he was for me and for himself and said I love you mommy.

He was kind to the unfortunate and literally gave the shirt off his back to help the homeless. I love you so much my Panda Bear. Thank-you for so much love in return.

“ One memory that I cherish is when Andrew and I made spectacles of ourselves at a concert in Illinois with Theo. We started making sarcastic remarks to each other and ended up laughing at inappropriate times. Needless to say we got a lit of strange looks. I will miss him when I make my regular visit at Christmas. Rest in Peace Andrew!!!
