

Anne Francis Krebses

June 22, 1946 - February 28, 2026

Anne “Annie” Francis (Courter) Krebses, 79, of Hobart, Indiana, passed away peacefully on February 28, 2026.

Born June 22, 1946, in Gibson City, Illinois, Anne built a life centered around family, resilience, and independence.

Anne was preceded in death by her husband of 32 years, William R. (Bob) Krebses; sister, Joan (Courter) Smith; and parents, Howard F. and Marcella (Sally) Courter.

She is survived by her loving children: John S. (Carmen) Redmon of Hobart, Indiana; Julie A. (Gary) McGinty of Arley, Alabama; Ronald (Ron) F. Redmon; and David N. (Kris) Redmon of Hobart, Indiana. She is also survived by her sister, Mary Ellen (John) Jackson of O’Fallon, Illinois; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren, all of whom were an important and cherished part of her life.

Anne spent her career working in the trucking industry. A member of St. Bridget’s in Hobart, Anne found community and connection in her faith. She enjoyed traveling and lived life on her own terms, embracing experiences with a spirited and independent nature.

Anne will be laid to eternal rest next to her husband during a private graveside service at Calumet Park Cemetery, Merrillville, Indiana. Burns Funeral Home & Crematory, Hobart, Indiana entrusted with arrangements.

Though she is gone from our sight, she will never be gone from our hearts.
Until we meet again, rest easy Anne.
