“ One of the first gals I met over a year ago moving to Cedar Lake from AZ. Ariel was so sweet, loved to talk and was always concerned for others. Thanks for being a sweet memory and may you rest in Paradise. Until we meet again my dear friend.

“ Ariel was a friend of mine who I met when I worked at Casey's for a brief time. Her and I did not instantly hit it off, but once I broke through her tough exterior we were the best of friends. I will always remember her laugh, her strong will, and the amount of love she would give everyone. I still can't grasp that this is true, I will miss her dearly.
