“ RIP Grandma Ray... You were a classy, beautiful, and an amazing woman. I will ALWAYS hold a special place in my heart for you. You taught me how to be genuine and kind to others. Your legacy will live on. I will always love you Grandma... I promise to always make you proud and treasure the memories we shared. I know without a doubt Jesus and Grandpa Ray welcomed you at Heaven's gate. There is a big party going on for you in heaven...you are without pain and in paradise.

“ Betty was such a valuable addition to so many groups. Her introspection led to exciting discussion at our book club gathering. We enjoyed Single Sisters together. Her devotion to her church community was heartfelt and tireless. May she rest in peace. May God give comfort to her family. With sympathy, Ann Naulty
