

Beulah Blaine Brown

March 26, 1928 - July 27, 2020

Beulah Blaine Brown, age 92, of Hobart, formerly of Chicago, IL., passed away July 27, 2020. She was a retired RN who studied at Cook County Hospital. She worked at Ross Clinic for a group of OB/Gyn Doctors. Beulah also was a volunteer for Red Cross Blood Drives, and a “Pink Lady” at Saint Mary Medical Center, Hobart for many years. She was a member of Hobart Methodist Church and past president at the Merrillville Historical Society. Beulah and her late husband Jim were avid boaters spending time on their “Board Foot” at Marquette Boat Club. In later years she enjoyed traveling and being a member of early Ford V8 Club with her 66 Fastback Mustang. She was preceded in death by her loving husband- James “Jim” W. Brown (former owner of Grant Street Lumber); grandson- James W. Sankowski; parents- Jesse and LaVerne Blaine. Beulah is survived by her daughter- Catherine (Donald) Stinar; sons- Daniel (Vicki), David (Darice), and James (Anne) Brown; grandchildren- Christine, Bobbie, Danielle, Christopher, Amber, Melinda, and Raymond; 13 great-grandchildren. A private memorial service will be held at a later date. A special thank you to the Brentwood Staff and Harbor Lights Hospice for their excellent care and compassion. Burns Funeral Home, Crown Point, entrusted with arrangements. www.burnsfuneral.com

*Aunt Boo was a true lady, regal, sweet and kind. I loved visiting her as she was always so welcoming. Women like her are rare in that she was courageously strong by herself and beautifully strong in her marriage. I loved her so much and am thankful she is in the Lord's heavenly home with Uncle Jim now.
I love her so much!*
