“ Condolences to family and friends. Bill and I use to get into mischief in grade school and junior high. Last time I saw him was when I was in town at a restaurant with his wife about 20 years ago or so. Every time I came home to Indiana I would ask about him but no one new where he was. May you rest in peace. Will be in the area next month will make a trip to the cemetary to see you.

“ My sincere condolences to your family.

Bill (Bubba) was a classmate at Horace Mann, and a great friend to our family. I am so saddened by his passing. The last time I was with Bill was at a Cubs game--with my cousin, Cary Collins, Ken Brown, Bill Berquist, and Angelo Angeles. I believe you could say that I was the rose among the thorns. Four of the guys sat under the awning, but Bill and I had seats very close to the first base line, and had a great afternoon chatting about old times.
