

Bojan Gligoroski

March 27, 1967 - December 4, 2022

I am heartbroken to announce that our dad Bojan Gligoroski passed away on December 4, 2022 on Precista at only 55 years old. Our dad was surrounded by all his close loved ones until his last breath at home and by so many near and far who loved him dearly.

He is survived by his wife, Blagородna Gligoroski; his two loving daughters: Angela (Angele), and Stefanija (Benjamin); his grandson, Emmanuel; his brother, Milčo (Ivanka); sister-in-law, Suzana; mother-in-law, Nada, and countless amounts more family members. He is preceded by his parents: Angele (Nada); and his brothers: Dime and Goce; father-in-law, Ilija.

He was born in Velestovo-Ohrid, Macedonia. He enjoyed cooking and was always in front of every oro celebrating. He provided for his family being a truck driver. Many knew my father by Manga, Bojan, Boki, Dedo, Tato, Tat, and with each name he left a legacy on many. Words can't explain what kind of man he was. He was always there for everyone. He was always kind, giving, humble, and just an amazing person all around. On every special occasion, family and friends always requested his famous burgers. I promised him we would continue making his famous burgers and always leave one for him to critique. He was the best person I ever got to know and I was proud to call him our dad. He will be missed by many.

We are relieved to know he isn't suffering anymore and that he is at peace. Our dad was a fighter, he even surprised doctors numerous times. He battled a long fight with cancer, and I don't know anyone stronger than he was. May he Rest in Peace
