

Bonnie Henig

October 25, 1938 - January 27, 2024

Bonnie (nee Haviland) Henig, born October 25, 1938, passed away January 27, 2024. Bonnie was a Horace Mann High School Alum. She was lovingly described as “Martha Stewart on steroids!” Bonnie was an amazing homemaker, an incredible cook, baker, and interior decorator. She took great pride in her home. She had totes and totes of holiday decorations and loved decorating for each holiday. Friends and neighbors would come by each holiday to admire her home and how it was decorated. Bonnie eventually made a career out of baking, becoming a baker. She also enjoyed making candy and jellies that she would give as gifts to friends. Bonnie was an avid card player with her friends in the community. She made you not just feel like a friend, but family. Bonnie is preceded in death by her husband, Arnold J. Henig, son, Cary J. Henig, sisters, Maxine Snyder and Marceil Coin, brother, Gerald Haviland and parents, Chester Haviland and Opal Haviland. She is survived by nephews, Larry Coin and Ronald Snyder, half sister-in-law, Caroline Lee-Chen, niece, Allsion Lee, and special friends Jerry and Sandi Brown.

A visitation will be held at Burns Funeral Home 701 East 7th Street Hobart, Indiana on Wednesday January 31, 2024, from 12-1pm. A graveside service will take place at Calumet Park Cemetery 2305 West 73rd Avenue Merrillville, Indiana at 1:30 pm. www.BurnsFuneral.com

“ Uncle Arnold and Aunt Bonnie were ALWAYS so kind to me and my daughter Sarah. They made sure we were welcomed during holidays when my parents lived out of state. They were both by my side at the hospital when my daughter had major surgery. We were always connecting by phone when they lived in Florida. Always wanting to make sure we were doing good. I always felt nothing but love from my Aunt Bonnie and Uncle Arnold. The 2 were almost never apart because of their great love they had for each other. Now, they can be together again. Bless you and love you Aunt Bonnie. ”
