

Brandon L Bodhaine

December 1, 1985 - February 28, 2022

Brandon Bodhaine, age 36, of Hobart, IN passed away suddenly on February 28th, 2022. He lived his hillbilly life to the fullest. He could be found in the woods or on the water with a bottle of fire ball in his hand next to his partner in crime TRACEY ANN HOLLOMAN. Brandon could out-fish anyone and would fill everyone's freezer with deer meat.

Brandon was born on December 1st, 1985, with boots on his feet and a fishing pole in his hand. His redneck nature didn't fall far from the tree in the form of nieces and nephews. Together they loved mushroom hunting, ice fishing, swimming pool rough housing, four wheeling, and just being together in general.

Brandon's greatest gift to the world was his daughter Annaleise. The time spent with her meant more to him than any other activity in his life. Daddy was his best title. For the better part of the last year Brandon had been dating the female version of himself, Loren Murzanski. His family knew this was different and their love was the one to last. Brandon's biggest support through his whole life was his mom. Through ups and downs, no matter what was happening, she was his protector.

Brandon was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents-Larry and Harvanna Brink; paternal grandfather-Bob Murray. He is survived by his parents- James and Madelyn Bodhaine; grandmother-Marretta Murray; his one and only child-Annaleise; siblings-Kerisa (Alfonso) Garcia, Sarah (Dion Dockery) Unland, Angie (Derek) McMurtery and Jeramy Bodhaine; nieces and nephews-Alex (Brooklyn), Alyssa, Arianna, Olivia, Liam, Trinity, Phoenix, Santana, Chesnie, Aleena and Zion; many loving aunts, uncles and cousins.
