“ I will always Remember her smile, she made the best Irish stew ever, it was always the 1st to go at soup buffets at the church. My all time favorite remembrance of her is I can speak with the Irish accent and I would call her speaking like I was Irish and she always thought I was one of her sisters in Ireland and she would crack up laughing when she realized that it was me. I was so honored to take communion to her these past few months.. I am going to miss her very much. I know she is with the Blessed mother and Our Lord, Earl and all those she loved who went before her.
