“ Webber Family,

I'm very sorry to hear of your loss. I first met Bruce when I worked at the Hobart F.D. He would stop by for news stories, always interested to learn of emergency calls or our involvement with community projects. I visited with him at the Historical Society on occasion, too, where I truly saw his passion for Hobart's heritage. There, while in conversation, we discovered that he and my dad served in the Army together. Bruce was always very kind and happy to stop and say hi. He was one of those people that gave Hobart a warm heart and soul. Although I hadn't seen him in some time he wasn't forgotten. And, I'm sure he will be missed by many. Thank you for sharing him with us and I wish you all peace.
