“ I have so many great memories with you Papaw, like you sneaking me pop when you'd get home from work in the middle of the night, when me and Nick (Nickers) would stay the night with you almost every weekend after we moved out and you would cook us breakfast and we would watch disney movies all night after being outside all day. I am going to miss your bedtime stories about Mr and Mrs Seth and how horrible you would sing "beautiful dreamer" and we would laugh and laugh. You prepared us all for this day papaw telling us never to forget the lord if we believe and follow him we will all meet again in the end. I love you I will never forget everything you've taught me papaw.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of you dad, but my earliest is when I was probably 4 years old. You'd come home from work dog tired with 2 huge garlic pickles in hand for you and I share together. No matter how tired you were you always found time to play with me. I love and miss you more than you know!! I will miss your phone calls just to say "I love you". I know as time goes by it will get easier but for now, my heart is broken...
