“ I guess that this is better late than never. Carlos was a frat bro at Ball State and he joined shortly before I graduated. That prevented me from spending more time with him. I was able attend one of his Labor Day weekend fraternity reunions. I'll remember him as a person who never was someone to draw attention to himself and was always genuinely glad to see me.

“ To Carlos's family, I am truly sorry for your incredible loss. As an Andrean classmate, he was always so cheerful and nice to everyone. My earliest memory of him goes back to the 8th grade. I went to St. Mary of the Lake and played the flute in the band. That Christmas, our band met up with other school's band at St. Peter and Paul to put on a Christmas concert. It was a fun day (plus no school.....yay!). I had met him then, as he was a drummer for, I think, St. Luke's. Then on to Andrean for high school, and soon we met again in band and laughed as we remembered that Christmas concert. My hubby & a few sisters had lunch at Ming Ling's one day then decided to stop in at Beach Cafe (too many years ago :(.

Carlos was there and was incredibly friendly, and especially beamed when he talked about his much loved family. He was a very special shining star, and I will always remember him fondly.

“ I am proud to state that Carlos Mateo has been my dear friend for nearly 50 years! He was always there when you needed him! His character was dominated by LOVE - in all its good persuasions, which include: kindness; loyalty; compassion; respect and justice - all of which were in perennial application towards family, friends and fellow man. He was a truly unique person of great complexity...he was Conquistador, Taino and Merengue syncopator all penuriously rolled-in-to-one that he termed as "HoosieRican"!

To Liz, Mariah, Mike and the rest of the Mateo family: our deepest sympathy...he adored all of you...you gave meaning to his life! A Good man is gone...but not lost...Dei Gratia!

Ah! Carlos...you will be Missed...but never Forgotten!

For all those cognoscenti who participated in his ways:

...Let's drink a toast to Carlos...let's shout one last "wazoo!" Lets slip the grip, give a slap on the back and know that our bonds are still true.

The things we had, the times that we shared, you know they will always be

Till they lay us to rest, and plant us all deep, and our spirits are once again free!

We'll always will be brothers, brothers. We have/are the Sig Tau Blues! (from the irrepressible song "The Sig Tau Blues")

Love to all,

Adrian Stackhouse and family

“ My success as a Cross Country coach at Andean HS had a lot to do with Carlos and his ability to take a simple sport like running and show the kids at Nativity how to embrace a tough sport that inevitably would pave the way for many of them to have successful high school careers, but more importantly careers in college and thereafter. I always remember asking Carlos to join me at the high school ranks but he would always say, " then I can't feed you any runners." He was an honorable man, a man of integrity and high character and I will always be grateful for the bc example he was to the young kids that crossed his path, he loved them all. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family specifically Liz and Mariah, may God provide you comfort where emptiness presents itself.

“ *Extremely sorry that this happened. It was a shock to me as well as all his friends and family. He and I had run against each other for years; both knowing of each of our abilities and both besting each other at each race. (I'm 65+) Truthfully I couldn't wait till he would be in the next age group so I could possibly place. I have to work on Friday and can't make it, but my thoughts and prayers are with the family. “ My condolences to the family. Carlos was an age group competitor of mine, his birthday being almost exactly one month earlier than mine. If we saw each other at a race we knew we would have to run harder to place, but I wouldn't have had it any other way. Always a good time after the finish and a most pleasant person. I've thought of him often. If the picture I sent comes out as I Hope it will, I am the fellow over his left shoulder. I'll catch him on the other side. Tom Ortega

“ *Liz & Mariah,
We are so very sorry for your tremendous loss. We thought the world of Carlos. He was always so friendly & down to earth. We only got to see him about once every 5 years, but we seemed to just pick up from where we left off. He was always happiest talking about you - he was so proud of Mariah!
We loved Carlos & rest assured, he will not be forgotten.*

“ Carlos lived the most exemplary life of almost anyone we have known. He took pride and pleasure in his family, work, and the service he gave to our community. We will always remember him as a joyous person who lived life to the fullest. Carlos seemed to know he had everything that's most important in life, especially his greatest loves, Liz and Mariah. I grew up in Miller and spent quite a lot of time at Miller beach in the summers and at the Miller beach Bath House. I remember him showing me the restoration/renovation he had worked on there. He will be missed and remembered by all those who knew him.*

“ *Carlos of Coamo, lived el mejor de dos mundos,
Work and Play, Run and Rest, City and Beach,*

*Carlos had the best love of two beautiful women.
Liz and Mariah, wife and daughter,
—we can't say anything you don't know,*

*But know this, Carlos is still looking out for you, for us.
He is going to be at every tailgate party at IU games,
At the beach 'office' when the discussion gets good,*

*Listening and finding the best way to solve it
If there's a question to settle or project to fix,
He'll show us how, with a Thumbs Up when done.*

*Carlos was a Craftsman in every way, not just a carpenter.
He changed humble cottages to gems, castles on the sand.
The beach was his inspiration, Miller and the lake his world.*

*He watched our house for us, while we were gone, an empty soldier on the counter to show he was there.
Carlos shines in every window, passes through every wall*

*Carlos coached kids and ran with the pack to show the way
He cared for Gary, for Miller and PR, least and great alike
Hands-on was his way all-ways, whether with hammer or drums*

*The beat goes on, and Miller will never be the same, but yet,
Because of Carlos Miller will always be the same,
A precious gem in the industrial forge, love at its heart.*

*Love in the heat, warmth in the cold, Carlos Mateo is with us all,
Showing us this work in progress, with his unforgettable smile,
His chuckle, and his knock-on-wood. Just as Carlos said--we know it's true--*

*I was a neighbor of his late mother and father from their Puerto Rico 🇵🇷 home. Carlos used to run the San Blas de Illescas Marathon being such a caring person of all our community we would be all go out to support him. After he stopped running he would visit almost every year and the whole community where his mom and dad use to live always came out for his famous hugs. We are so shocked and saddened by the loss of Carlos. He was one of our favorite people in Miller. He always had time for a chat and a laugh. The carpentry work he did for us was absolutely first rate as was the easy friendship he shared with us and so many others. We will miss him.
