“ As a sister of Mr. Castillo's daughter-in-law, Ida, I am fortunate to have experienced the depth and breadth of his character and pure heart through the many exceptional qualities and acts of generosity, kindness, devotion and love displayed and expressed by him, his extended family and children throughout the many years of my acquaintance. My prayer is for finding comfort in your many memories of him, and peace knowing you forever have within you his legacy of love.

With much sympathy,

Martha Rae (Volochari)
