“ I enjoyed holiday celebrations (Thanksgiving, Christmas, sometimes Easter,) in my younger days & early marriage days. We always had a lot of fun & left with a full stomach & leftovers to take home.

“ Carol was one of a kind. Kind to everyone she meet. This world was a better place because of her. I will miss our phone calls. Our long talks. I loved her as you would love a sister. Heaven got an angel.

“ Well Carol, what is there to say. There is so much. You welcomed me into your family and made me feel at home. I'll miss our morning coffee time. It was nice to just sit and talk about our days and you tell me stories about growing up. I'll always remember you telling me the story about hearing Michael Jackson when you lived close to where they were performing. The cats and I will always miss you. I love got Carol

“ You Auntie Carol, are proof that Angels walk among us. You were a major part in my childhood. I remember swimming, your orange cookie jar, camping, and so many other wonderful memories. You opened your arms and home to all. I am sad that God took you home, and will miss you like crazy. There will always be an empty space in my heart, in my soul without you. Love you so much!! Until we meet again....

Can not think about you with out thinking of Julius. God blessed you with your perfect mate . You and Julius were a perfect reflection of each other. Julius like you took care of his mother,father,sister,nephew, and never turn away the countless other who needed a home.Julius like you worked to provide for all the needs and wants of his family and others . I smile as I think of the joy you get from giving children candy

As my heart breaks for Carol it breaks even more for Julius who has lost his reflection.Julius we love Carol and we also love you.

Thank you for being the husband ,father,and friend that you are .love you Lisa

“ Aunt Carol was there for me during the hardest time of my life. When I was a lost, confused and angry teenager she showed me what home and family was when i needed it. I will always love her. Thank you Aunt Carol, you have made a powerful and positive impact on my life.

I loved my cousin Carol; she was close to my mother Audrey and her kids, me being the oldest. I remember Carol celebrating many Thanksgivings & Christmases with our families through the years. I watched as Tony & Ted became adolescents & then adults. I loved Carol's good cheer.

*I see Gods finger prints on you: My mother died and my sister and I was taken to Audrey Van Blacks home she raised Sherri and I and and loved us with a heart of a mother . Before Audrey Went to heaven she asked Carol to watch over us . Carol kept her promise and picked up the mantle that God has blessed on my life and for 30 years Carol played an active roll in my life , more than a cousin , she became a mother,sister,and best friend.
Your life reflects the heart of are Heavenly Father and you have brought Glory to him . Now my friend you get to enjoy all the goodness of God. I will see you soon but until then my heart will long for your companionship .Love you,Lisa*
