

Carole Ann Heuring

December 20, 1935 - January 28, 2021

Carole Ann Heuring (nee Stolp), age 85 of Valparaiso, formerly of Hobart, went to heaven peacefully the morning of January 28, 2021. Mrs. Heuring was incredibly blessed and incredibly loved. She met her husband, H. P. "hal" Heuring of 43 years in grammar school at the pencil sharpener when they were just 14 years old. He was the love of her life and she still had a twinkle in her eye when his name was mentioned the day before she left us. They married in 1958 at St. Bridget Church in Hobart, IN and had four children in four years; Scott Paul Heuring (Mindy Heuring), Brenda Ann (Jim) Howard, Craig Paul (Paula) Heuring and Paulette Ann (Jim) Marino.

Carole was a registered nurse and earned her nursing degree at Rosland Community Hospital in 1958. She worked primarily as a surgical or ER nurse. She was Mrs. Heuring, Mrs. H. Lorac (Carol backwards) and Mamacita to every kid known to the family. She loved having everyone in the pool all summer and she was often the first call whenever any kid in the neighborhood got sick or wiped out on their bike. (Everyone knew she kept tetanus shots in the refrigerator). She always made everyone, young and old, feel welcome. When her children left for college, Carole tried her hand at golf and was pretty darn good. She played several times a week with her buddies in the Valparaiso Country Club 18-hole league, and she made many lifelong friends in Ft. Myers, FL on the Olde Hickory golf course where she and hal spent many winters. Carole and hal built their life in Hobart until 1986 when they moved to Valparaiso. She was a member of the Hobart Jaycees, Phi Beta Psi

Sorority and she also volunteered as a “pink lady” at St. Mary Medical Center and was a life member of the auxiliary.

She was “Mocha” to eleven grandchildren – Spencer Paul Heuring, Clare (Alex) Dyba and Will Paul Heuring; Matt Howard and Andrew Howard; Danielle (Brian) Dziejzinski and Samuel Paul Heuring; Grace Marino, Michael Marino, Joseph Paul Marino and Vincent Paul Marino. She especially loved being “GG” to her only great grandchild, Jake Dziejzinski. Six nieces and nephews were adored by Aunt Carole and she was blessed with brothers and sisters in law – Winnie and Bill Heuring and Sue and Dave Heuring.

Her mother named her Carole because she was born so close to Christmas. Her parents, Clara and John Dixon and brother, Bill Stolp preceded her in death.

Carole was a huge Cubs fan, fed every bird in Porter County, loved the color blue, made the best English toffee and always wore Estee Lauder Beautiful perfume. She will be dearly missed by her family.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Tuesday, February 2, 2021 at 10 a.m. at St. Paul Catholic Church, 1855 W. Harrison Blvd., Valparaiso. Entombment at Graceland Cemetery, Valparaiso. “ Please accept my thoughts and prayers. I have known Carole since kindergarten and Hal was one of my best friends. We always enjoyed visiting her when we were in Indiana and Florida. Memories of Notre Dame games and fun times together. She had a delightful laugh and could entertain you with such fun stories. May the angels lead her into paradise

Have many wonderful memories of Carol and Hal when our boys were so active. I never saw Carol without a smile. I know she leaves a void in the hearts of all who loved her but she had a life well lived

“ There are so many delightful memories we have of Carole; not the least of which is her contribution to our kitchen remodeling project...Carole astutely pointed out the need for a window on one wall, and from that point on, we called it "Carole's window." You'll always live in our memories and hearts, Judy and Bill

“Mocha”!! That makes me smile, and cry at the same time. She was so kind, witty, loving, beautiful inside and out! I know Spencer loved spending time with his Mocha, and she will be missed so much! Hugs and prayers to all of you
