“ Cathy and I were in Health and Safety Class together at Emerson, she brightened up the class with her smile and beauty, was flirted with by all the guys and just made the class more fun to be in. Will miss her. Terry Waggoner-Rumsey All my condolences to her large family. I also remember her enjoying Bingo with her mom.

“ A few years ago, I wrote cards to my family letting them know personally how much they meant to me. I know aunt Cathy knew how much she means to me and how very much I love her and appreciate her kindness and care for me my whole life. Spending time at Aunt Cathy and Uncle Harry's was always the best time and they always went out of their way to be lights in my life. I'm so glad they're reunited, even if it means we'll be separated until I transition from this earthly plane. God bless you and keep you Aunt Cat, I hate that the last few years and especially months were so tough on you. You are loved, immeasurably and forever.

“ Aunt Cathy,

Here's to your new adventures in Heaven, May they be as rich and full of love and laughter as they were on earth.

You were a staple of my childhood, hugs, laughter, encouragement and a smile.

What resonates most, is the love and friendship you shared with my parents, 50 years of friendship, though all life's seasons, you were there, solid, grounded and forever faithful.

You will be missed...

Soar high and bright.

“ Some people come into our lives and go quickly. Some stay for awhile and leave footprints on our hearts. Ane we are never ever the same. I have been blessed to have about 6 friends in my life who have left footprints on my heart and countless memories for me to pull out when I need one. Cathy was one of those special friends one will never forget. She was loving, kind and always had a smile. Often we talked for hours on the phone always picking up where we left off. I will truly miss my dear friend and sister in heart. We choose each other. I love you Cathy and know that you are up there telling stories and having a great time with all. Fly over my dear for I will miss you beyond words.

“ Cathy was a big pet of my childhood. From play dates with her daughters Heather and Roxanne to slumber parties at her house to watching her play softball at the little league field. She was a devout Mom and would and has been there for me in good times and bad. Rest In Peace Cathy. You will be missed. Hugs and prayers to the entire Osborne family!
