“ I am so sorry to hear about your Dad. He loved to sit on his front porch and share stories with the neighborhood or I would see him walking his little dog up and down the street.

“ My deepest sympathies to you all in this time of grief. I have such amazing memories of Charlie! Sitting on the porch for hours listening to stories. How blessed I was to have this wonderful man 3 houses away. I will forever remember....."they were ragged they were torn,you could tell that they were worn, Maggie let your drawers droop down".....you will be missed Mr. Engler...

“ Thankful for this man and his friendship he shared with my Mom and Dad for so many years. His sense of humor lingers on and I find myself repeating many of his famous quotes that have made me giggle so much over the years. Love you and will always remember you fondly, Charlie! If I ever get to Kidney Trouble Arkansas and meet good ole Ledbetter I will shake his hand for you! <3
