“ I'm so sorry for your loss Tetka. May you rest in the comfort of life eternal. My heart will forever hold endearing memories of Charlie. His easy-going spirit was a wonderful contrast to some of the other chaos that many of us carry in our daily lives. I can just picture Charlie now sitting in the chair at the kitchen table praising your delicious nut-roll now. I also can still see him dancing the night away at my wedding in Colorado. I thank God for those good memories. Thank you Uncle Chuck, and we love you Tetka!

Love Always,
Danka, Ryan, Harrison and Connor
