

Charles Magrady

January 27, 1923 - July 18, 2016

Charles A Magrady of Crown Point, IN formerly of Roseland, IL passed away July 18th 2016 at the age of 93.

Charles is survived by his wife of 72 years, Lois Magrady (nee Bross), sister-in-law Ethel LaRoche and many nieces and nephews.

Charles was a WWII veteran, author and school teacher at the Edison school in Hammond, IN, but he was always the happiest in the air being a private pilot for many years. Burns Funeral Home, Crown Point, entrusted with private arrangements.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Charlie held a special spot with me, enjoyed all our talks in the driveway and his sense of humor. Is a vivid memory the day we went with my Dad Carl Rippy to see the World War 2 airplanes at the airport in Valpo. Charlie scurried thru those bombers like a 17 year old who knew no fear or pain. At a later time I went to ride on a Ford Tri-motor there and as I walked in to the terminal There was Charlie, he had just finished a ride on that old bird, found an old friend there and we greeted each other with a big hug. Have not had much contact since moving away from Crown Point, we make life to busy for the good things. A true American who will be missed . May Lois find peace in knowing Charlie went to a better place.

Mark Rippy - September 23, 2016 at 12:24 PM

AH

“ Our staff offers our most sincere condolences at the loss of Charles. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time.

Aseracare Hospice - July 22, 2016 at 04:32 PM

VI

“ Charlie, will be missed, I was honored to know him God Bless.
Vince

vince - July 19, 2016 at 08:11 PM