“ Chuck was a little older than me, but his brother Ed was in the same class with me at Saint Patrick's Grammar School in South Chicago. Rest in Peace , I went to Mount Carmel like Chuck did, but I was a late bloomer as a hockey player, Chuck was already a stud super swimmer at MC. Rest in Peace, Chuck.

“ Chuck was a very good friend of mine in the 60's and early 70's. I had come to Chicago from Florida and he befriended me. We were swimmers and Water Polo teammates as well as friends. We were recruited together for both sports and took several recruiting trips together. He wasn't that interested in going forward and I was looking to get the f out of Chicago at the time, so I went to Michigan State. He picked me up at OHare the first time I came back into Chicago from school. He lived with me the next summer after my mom died and he had gotten out of going to Nam. Cubs games everyday and we lived right behind Rainbow Beach w\here we had several friends who were lifeguards so they always came over and we'd have a beer or two.. That was the year (if you are a Cubs Fan) that they blew a double digit lead to lose the National League pennant to the Mets. I would describe him as a gentle giant. Nobody wanted to f with him but he was kinda clueless to that. He was just a really nice guy. Loved him and I'll always remember him. I wish I could go to the services but unfortunately can't. I have passed all the info to our old coach - Dan Murphy who will send to all the old Mt Carmel swimmers.
