ME

“ Condolence: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. This is one of the most difficult things we must face in this life. May it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. But the bible assures us at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken in heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He also promises that we will be able to see our loved ones again. Jesus own words found at John 5:28,29 tells us there will be a resurrection. What a wonderful hope! He also promises that soon on the earth there will be no more pain, suffering and especially death. Revelation 21:3-5 We anxiously await the day when we will no longer lose those we love. May these bible thoughts bring you comfort at this most difficult time

“ Les had a kind heart, a gentle natural, and was a good man. Loved to make him laugh and listen to his stories about things he did in his life and to hear about other experiences he encountered during his travels around the country.

I called him friend and will definitely miss him, my deepest heart felt condolences to the Morgan family.

See you on the other side Les.

“ Dear Debbie, Chris, Leslie and Family,

Your father and husband, Les, became a great friend of mine more than 20 years ago beginning when my family moved next door to you in Barclay Village. He never failed to stop and talk with me in the driveway on his way home from work about our common interests or to check if I was staying out of trouble. I was a young teenager back then and learned a lot from your father and husband. He was a mentor to me. Les helped me to learn more things than I can even remember now. Most notably, he shared his course books on digital systems and made sure I knew math in hexadecimal and binary and he taught me gate logic.

Your dad trusted me and let me play with his computers when I was babysitting little Chris before Leslie was even born. I remember his lab was mammoth and full of gadgets and electronics which spanned several decades of technology.

We last saw your family at the TGI Friday's in Merrillville many years ago. Although I will be in Texas and cannot grieve together with you at Burns; please know from my heart I am truly saddened having learned of his passing.

He will go with God and be blessed.

Thank you for the memories.

With my sympathy and prayer,

Chris

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I have known and worked with Les for little over a year here at the power plant. He was my favorite person to talk to and work with here. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
