“ I met Chuck 60 years ago when we were pledge brothers at the Kappa Sigma Fraternity at IU. We were roommates for a few semesters. My memories of Chuck are way too numerous to mention all of them. Highlights certainly include hundreds of games of cribbage, riding in the Little 500 together, and endless discussions of politics. Chuck was my best man when I married Rachel. After IU Chuck and I both became lawyers; I moved to Colorado and he became general counsel in Gary.

I will be in the area the week of April 11, to visit my sister. When I looked to see how to contact Chuck for a visit, I was sad to find his death notice instead. Missed him by a few days.

Peggy, Rachel and I will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
