“ Cheryl you will be missed by all! I always looked forward to our conversations and you had the most caring heart and went out of your way for others. You were the best neighbor and friend we could ask for! I will miss talking to you and having you to confide in. We will always be grateful you were in our lives and we got the opportunity to know you. My condolences to all of her family and friends.

“ My condolences to the family. I’ve know Cheryl for many years from various Bingo halls and from Strack’s. She’s one of the few people that can make me laugh. Rest in heaven, beautiful!

“ Cheryl was a good friend of my sister Joanie. I was so glad to finally meet Cheryl only 3 weeks ago. But, sadly, I Cheryl at my sister Joanie's Memorial Visitation. I could tell that Cheryl was a wonderful person, and that she was truly sad that Joanie had passed away.

I wish I would have had more time to talk to her and get to know her.

I imagine Cheryl and Joanie are together in Heaven playing bingo and having fun, free of life's cares. Friends together 💕.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Cheryl's family and all who loved her and knew her. Rest in peace Cheryl. Thank you for being such a good friend to my sister. 🙏🏻💙🌻🦋

I sat with Cheryl quite often at bingo and shared many stories of our lives. We just had a few weeks before we planned to go fishing for bluegill and crappie. I'll have you with me in thoughts and prayers dear friend and I'll feel you in the cool breeze and sitting by my side. Rest in peace til we see each other again. BevTorres
