A young womans life cut short, who would have known what she could have been if only with a mothers guidance to show her the way.

John the show on ID said she passed from an OD...feel so bad for those she left behind I'm sure she was a great person lead down the wrong path by the one person who should guide her in the right path her mother...

“ I was friends with Christina for a short but very meaningful time. During that time we created many memories, going to the beach and going into the city with her and other friends.. She will be missed. I wish her family and all her friends my deepest condolences.

Feel horrible for the children. Too bad she came from such a messed up family, though. Otherwise she might not have turned out to be a druggy/felon/co-conspirator in her step father's murder. But most of all....feel sad for HIM that those treacherous losers were ever in his life.
