“ I remember Christine from grade school thru high school. She always had a great smile and carrot red hair (curly) We were friends and at one time we even lived just down the street from each other. It seems only like yesterday, even though it's been a few years, maybe longer, since we'd seen each other. To her family Steve and I send our sympathys and regards.. Chris was a very kind person and may she rest in eternal peace. Steve and Carolyn Nelson Gebhardt

“ Deaconess Christine was greatly loved by the youth during her ministry at Zion Lutheran Church in Schenectady, NY. Under her direction, I went on many field trips as a parent, and I enjoyed working with her, I'll never forget her upbeat attitude, big smile, and engaging personality. Christ's love shone brightly through her words and her actions. Sending you my sympathies even as I celebrate her life.
