“ *My deepest sympathy to the Berglund family. I have such wonderful memories of hanging out down the street at the Berglund house and just laughing hysterically all of the time there. Chris and I had fun being tom boys while growing up, and later, enjoyed going to outdoor concerts together. She has a special place in my heart and I will never forget her. May our loving God give you all peace and comfort during this time. Love you all,

“ Chris and I were good old friends who unfortunately let time and distance fade our relationship. I remember many great times together in years gone by, as I too remember her beautiful smile, fun spirit and generous heart. I was lucky to have known her. Heaven has gained an angel. My sincere condolences to her family.

“ Chris was a burst of Sunshine - always laughing and joking and having fun. She was a life long friend, we were roommates in Chicago in our early 20s and ski buddies in the Red Baron Ski Club - skied everywhere. My family loved her and she came to so many of our Holiday Parties - she was family. Christini Heini ... Nanceloni will see you in Heaven and we can ski on the Clouds!!

*My heart goes out to the Berglund Family.
