Tribute Wall

“ Chris was a friend to a couple of my kids and at our home often when they were growing up. I remember him to be a very quiet, polite, and kind young man. Our condolences to his family.

This was taken at a park near my house. Chris came to compete in a tournament a few years back. It was awesome to watch he and his teammate win it! Such a sweet, wonderful guy!!! He will be missed. I love you Chris, rest in peace.

“ Chris lived next for to me in hometown and grew up with my kids. He was such a good person and always polite. Didn't see him much after we moved but when I did run into him he was still the sweet guy that I knew. May he rest in eternal peace.

“ Chris Novy was one of the first baggers I ever met when I started playing in tournaments and we quickly became friends. He was always fun to have around and never failed to do something funny or make you be the center of a funny joke. I’m gonna miss you you dearly my friend and look forward to seeing you again. Tournament’s and life in general will not be the same without you brother. Rest easy.....love ya brother
