

Clara Jo Ruman-Sanders

August 6, 1952 - January 23, 2024

Clara Jo Ruman-Sanders, lovingly known as “Jo Momma”, was born August 6th, 1952, in Blue Ridge, Georgia to Frances Brown. She graduated from Whiting High School Class of 1970. Jo was an amazing singer; she was in the choir and baton. She went to cosmetology school and made a career out of making others feel beautiful for years working in local salons in the Hobart area. Jo was a caring, wonderful mother to her three daughters; Shelley Ruman, Sondra (Robert) Laco, and Susan “Kylie” Sanders. A devoted grandmother to her four beautiful grandchildren; Dakota, Harmony, Holly, and Havyn. She was hilarious and the life of any party. Jo warmly stepped in and was a mother figure to many of her children’s friends. As well as a grandmother to her grandchildren’s friends. She had a voice like a star and loved karaoke and won many contests. Jo was loved by everyone that knew her and she would help anyone she could.

She was walked into heaven on January 23, 2024, by her oldest daughter Shelley, her mother Frances, her sister, many aunts, uncles and too many of her best friends she lost along the way. A private funeral will be held for the family. Burns Funeral Home, Hobart entrusted with the arrangements. www.BurnsFuneral.com

Tribute Wall

JG

“ Rest peacefully Clara in the arms of our Lord

James Greskovich - February 04, 2024 at 03:48 PM

RE

“ Never forget when you took me to your boyfriend mom house and they were doing a prayer meeting. They touch me with their hands and started talking in tongues and seeing bright lights. Scared me to death. Lol

Reggie - February 04, 2024 at 10:33 AM

AT

“ So sorry for you loss! Sang together in high school, she had a beautiful voice. Prayers for all.

ANNETTE TOBIAS - February 03, 2024 at 09:52 PM