“ To Ray's family, our deepest sympathies. It has been years since Ray has grown his garden in Cedar Lake. We will always remember the fresh vegetables he gave us and getting the apples he sold every year. The good memories will always be with us. “ Dear Phyllis, Andy, and Randy:
I don't know if you remember me, but I was there when Andy made his record long jump, and I used to attend the softball games at Lemon Lake. I am so sorry for your loss. Ray was such a friendly guy. I wish I could have come to the funeral home today, but my car is in the mechanic shop. I will remember Ray in my prayers. God bless you all.
