“ Dear Donna, Sharron, Raymond and families. When I look back on my childhood Aunt CORA always comes to mind. I can still hear her singing and playing the piano She was one of the most wonderful women I've ever known. I loved being at her house when I was a kid. Her faith in God stood out in every thing she did. I know she was ready and is with her God right now. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. “ Donna, Sharon, Ray and extended Family our hearts go out to you at this time of loss. Aunt Cora was one of my very favorite Aunts. She taught me so much while growing up, and her deep Faith in a loving God helped to shape me into the person I am today. I have so many fond memories of her and all the kind and wonderful ways she reached out to our family. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her but she will live on in the lives of so many she touched. God Bless you all and give you comfort at this time. ##imported-begin## Nancy (Roberts) Gibson ##imported-end##

“ Dear Donna, Sharon, Raymond and families. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I will always remember Aunt Cora as the loving, caring and giving lady that she was. She always made me smile when I was a little girl when she played the piano at church. You could just feel the joy she had while playing. Always keep those precious memories of her in your hearts and know that she is now where she wants to be. God blessed her with a long and happy life. Love you all.
