“ Corinne was like a Grandma to me. I remember growing up heading to Grandma Corinne's house after the annual 4th of July parade and she would pile on the candy. She always would bring me something when we visited her at Aunt Sue's house. I will always remember the trips with Doug picking her up for a holiday and heading back over to Aunt Sue's house. Whenever I see a Bingo game going on, I will always think of her. I have great memories of her in my heart.

“ Corinne was my Mother's favorite neighbor. I loved the Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls she made. Doris died a couple months ago. Maybe they are neighbors again. Linda Marler
