“ John John,
Our deepest sympathies during these very difficult times. Know that you have many great friends and family to help you get thru these tuff times. We feel very lucky to have met you and Cindy thru LB. We have many fond memories of our escapades of Vegas. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear John, Curtis, and Carrie, I'm so sorry for your loss. Words cannot express the depth of grief that I feel, I am completely heartbroken and shocked. Cindy was a great friend and always a truthful confidant. I will miss her laughs and conversations about our pets. There wasn't a more kinder loving person I knew in my life and I will miss her every day. She had the biggest heart and the biggest smile to go with it. I pray she is with her brother Danny now because she missed him so much. RIP my sweet friend. I will always love you.

“ John, Curtis & Carrie, I’m so sorry about your loss that the words won’t come. My heart is so broken, I can’t grasp that she is no longer in our lives. I don’t say this in any way to lessen your loss & grief, but she has been in my life for 65 yrs & it seems unimaginable to me also that she is gone. I have so many memories of all we’ve been through over the yrs & all the laughs we’ve had, and that gives me a small amount of comfort. There’s nothing I can say that would give you much comfort other than she was so special & was so very much loved by myself & so very many others. She will remain in my heart forever & my thoughts & prayers are with you. I hope knowing how many others loved & will miss her helps your sadness in some small way. I’ll love you forever Cindy Lou.
