We are very sorry for the loss of your mom. Although we have not seen each other in years, we have found memories from our childhood in Glen Park. Our mom (Mollie dec 1991) played bunco with your mom for years. She was always so crafty and funny. Your dad painted a mural on our livingroom wall in our house on Pierce Street. Kenny was in class with Jody at Webster Elementary. There were great Halloween Parties and Birthday Parties. You all were a great part of our childhood. Wishing you peace during this difficult time. Kelley (Bauldridge) Thomas and Jody (Bauldridge) Cabble.

“ When I was a kid, I thought she was an awesome mother! She was always June Cleaver, in my eyes. She was like a second Mom to me. Always made me feel welcome & did special things to show she cared. I'm happy that I have these memories of her! Hugs & prayers to all who loved her!
