“ Uncle Cyril and Aunt Josephine lived right behind Holy Family school when I was a student there. I would go to there place for lunch and they would treat me like a princess.

60 years later, Uncle Cyril and Dolores gave us all a loving and fun way to look at retirement.

I will always love them all.

I will never forget the great memories of trick or treating on Joliet Street. There was that house with the friendly ghost. As I grew older I would still walk by and watch the young kid's experience the ghost approaching the front door and giving out treats. Also, enjoyed visiting on our walks around the block with our Mom, Barbara Kline. God bless your family!

“ My sister Radine could not have put it more perfectly. Cy was one of the kindest, sweetest, men, I have ever known. and he was our Mom's, Knight in Shining Armor! And deserved that title! He had a great laugh, a beautiful smile, a sweet nature, he was a good Christian, and a great funny story teller, and he cracked me up, because he would crack himself up, and get to giggling so hard he couldn't talk 😊 we will miss our weekly Friday breakfast, and and I'm sure there are many waitresses and waiters out there that are going to miss seeing him too, and we all just feel so very grateful and blessed that our mom got to spend 14 happy, Loving, and fun filled years with such a wonderful man 🙏 We love you Cy 😊

“ The last 14 years, were memories made daily between our Mom and her best friend. Cy will forever be in the heart's of Mom, and our family. Cy you were a bonus Dad to us, and a bonus grampa to our kids, and the best thing that walked into mom's life after we lost our Dad. From birthdays, to volleyball games, graduations, friday breakfasts, walks in the park, holidays, and everyday, you were there. We love you so much Cy, rest easy you will be missed.
