“ sorry to hear of the passing of Daniel. The memories of working so many years side by side in the sign business will be cherished always. I will never forget the chili cook offs, and great fish and halushka we ate at the shop. There are only a few of us left of our original crew those forty years ago. rest in peace my brother. your friend Mark Smith

As a sign salesman, I was fortunate that the Lord blessed my early years with a working friendship in Danny. His knowledge and ability paved the way for me to succeed in my craft.

Condolences to the Dudak family. I will forever have a special place of in my heart for all of the signage , fishing & cooking wisdom he passed along to me. His actions always spoke to Proverbs 27:17 ; .."iron sharpens iron as one man sharpens another"... Rest In Peace old friend !
