

Daniel James Halloran

June 10, 1951 - October 17, 2025

Daniel James Halloran, 74, of St. Pete Beach, Florida, passed away on October 17, 2025, after a lengthy illness. Born on June 10, 1951, in Gary, Indiana, Dan lived a life defined by warmth, optimism and enduring love for those closest to him. Dan moved to Florida in the early 90's, following his dream of beach life. He married his loving wife, Clare, who shared his love of beaches and sunsets, in 1993, on the beach at Palm Island, Florida.

Dan spent his career in hospitality where his outgoing personality and infectious laugh made all he met feel like old friends. Dan offered the simple gift of friendship, making all smile brighter and laugh louder. Those he met may forget what he said but never forget how he made them feel.

Dan was a 1973 graduate of Butler University where he was a member of the Bulldog football team and Sigma Chi fraternity.

Dan is survived by his wife, Clare Halloran; his son, Ty Hurner (Giselle); his grandchildren, Gray and Presley; his stepsons, Donnie and William Supple (Merle); two step grandchildren, Connor and Madelyn Supple; his brother, Kevin Halloran (Lori); his sister, Kathleen O'Halloran (William Padula) and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews. Dan was preceded in death by his parents, Thomas Edward Halloran and Marie Frances Halloran and his brother, Thomas Edward Halloran, Jr.

A service celebrating Dan's life will be held on November 8, 2025, at 2 p.m. at the Beach Memorial Chapel, 301 Corey Avenue, St. Pete Beach, Florida 33706.

“Dan's obituary is true. I only met him a few times in my life, but he most certainly made you laugh and smile. I remember meeting him on the beach with his brother, Kevin. As he showed us around, he told us stories and made us laugh the entire time. That was 40 years ago, and I found myself reflecting back on that moment several times throughout my life, and those memories still make me smile and laugh. My deepest sympathies to the entire family for your loss.
