“ Frankie, as I preached for the interim at Pleasant Heights Church in Columbia, there was no one who was more of an encourager than Dan. Even when I could tell that it was not easy for him, he would get up from his seat and make his way to wherever I was—Sunday after Sunday—to say a kind, encouraging word. I was truly blessed by his firm handshakes and warm greetings and positive affirmations. I'm deeply thankful that my life intersected with Dan's during those months. What a joy he was to me; I will never forget him. —'Bro. Mike' Dawson

“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Danny growing up. I remember him loaning my brother his cadillac to drive to the prom along with loaning him his white dress shoes to wear. He used to visit us frequently and I considered him to be my favorite "Uncle".
